Notes and activity description Student's independent work – during the semester, the students solve 6 sets of tasks for self-assessment of the communicative competence, and each set of tasks is evaluated with 0.5 or 1 point, depending on the accuracy. The tasks should to be solved after a certain unit or lesson has been covered. The deadline for submitting the first three sets of tasks is the date of the first mid-term exam, and the deadline for the next three sets is on the date of the second mid-term exam. Oral exam - students prepare monologues and dialogues to assigned texts and conversations from the field of tourism (education, work, description of accommodation facilities, dialogues in hotels, restaurants and travel agencies, itineraries and travel plans) and perform and simulate them individually, in pairs or in groups. Speaking skills are evaluated on a scale of 0 to 16 points. Continuated test (mid-term exam) – the students write 2 mid-term exams during the semester. Their German language knowledge is tested with open-ended and closed-ended tasks similar or same to those done in class. At the first mid-term exam, students achieve a maximum of 28 points, and at the second, 20 points. Students will be informed about the dates of the mid-term exams on the first session and on the course website. They will receive detailed instructions about the material, topics, language structures and vocabulary that will be tested in each of the mid-term exams in class and on the course website. Final exam - on the final exam, everything that has been covered during the course is tested with open-ended and closed-ended tasks, and students can achieve a maximum of 30 points
Assessment method The assessment and the evaluation of the students' work during the class and on the final exam is carried out according to the Rulebook on evaluation of students at the Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality Management.
